Teen witch Sabrina returns with 'Chilling Adventures' on Netflix

By Jay Bobbin

Television's latest incarnation of teenage witch Sabrina is quite different, but "Riverdale" likely has helped prepare viewers for it.

Kiernan Shipka stars in "Chilling Adventures of Sabrina," which begins streaming Friday on Netflix.

Netflix begins streaming "Chilling Adventures of Sabrina" Friday, Oct. 26, with Kiernan Shipka ("Mad Men") as the young sorceress struggling to master adolescence along with her nascent powers. Based on a comic book published since 2014, and with executive producers including the prolific Greg Berlanti, the show was originated to accompany The CW's "Riverdale" — which also takes a much different slant on Archie Comics characters — but Netflix picked it up for two seasons being filmed back-to-back, with production scheduled to continue through December.

As in previous incarnations, Sabrina's fellow-witch aunts Zelda and Hilda are present, but now played more seriously by Miranda Otto ("Homeland," "24: Legacy") and Lucy Davis ("The Office"). "I'd never seen the original TV show," friendly Australia native Otto says of Melissa Joan Hart's take. "As a kid, I had read some Archie comics and I must have seen the Sabrina parts, but I didn't have a huge knowledge of the character."

Otto sees that as a plus in reinventing the concept: "Originally when I read the script, I was trying to figure out exactly where the show was going to sit. I had seen images from the '90s version, and I wondered if it was going to be a brightly lit comedy. Then, Roberto (Aguirre-Sacasa, Archie Comics' chief executive officer and the series' showrunner) showed me the Gothic design of the show and I went, 'OK. Great. Now I understand where we are.'

"They've given us a world that is really fun to play in," adds Otto. "Zelda is not a very politically correct kind of character, and Lucy and I never read together. We just turned up, and off we went. I had worked with Kiernan before (in the forthcoming movie 'The Silence'), so I knew what perfect casting she was for Sabrina. The whole thing came together so easily."

Though Otto did green-screen work in the "Lord of the Rings" films, she's surprised not to have much of it in "Chilling Adventures of Sabrina." Still, she maintains the show's supernatural elements "are really amazing in their detail. Sometimes, the language of the show is quite technical because it's written in a certain style. I love the challenge, but sometimes, it's a lot to get out."

Also a stage veteran, Otto appreciates having television as a creative outlet. "There are strong female roles there that are harder to find in film these days," she reflects. "I'm not saying they aren't there, but there aren't as many drama movies being made as there used to be. TV has become a great platform for actresses."

Bayonne to Hold Event for Special Needs People October 23 With Public Safety and Community Organizations

Mayor Jimmy Davis announced that the City of Bayonne is sponsoring an information night for Special Needs people of all ages in conjunction with public safety agencies and community organizations. The event will be called Calming Sirens, and will take place at DiDomenico-16th Park (lower level) on Tuesday, October 23, from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Participating agencies include the City of Bayonne, the Bayonne Police Department, the Bayonne Fire Department, the Hudson County Sheriff's Department, McCabe Ambulance, and the Police Department of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey. There will be no sirens sounding at the event. Other participating organizations include Children's Specialized Hospital, Hybridge Learning Group, Infinite Therapy Solutions, A Friendly Face Autism Treatment Services, Bayonne Elks Lodge #434, the Catch You Later Foundation, and the British Swim School.

The purpose of the event is to give people with special needs an opportunity to meet with emergency services in a calm, non-judgmental way. Participants will have the opportunity to see fire trucks, police and sheriff's cars, motorcycles, and other vehicles. They will also be able to meet officers and agency staff members.

A sensory location will be available. A sensory location is a small area within the event for a child with sensory issues to take a break. The sensory station will be provided by BCB Community Bank, and is brought to you by the Bayonne Special Education Parent Advisory Council. There will be calming Yoga, complements of BOHO Yoga.

For more information, or to inquire about becoming a participating organization or business, please contact Elisha DeMaria by e-mail at Elisha.demaria@nyu.edu. Participating groups may distribute informational literature or distribute giveaway items.

Yi Sushi Go - a fabulous new sushi shop opened ten months ago at 266 Broadway between 11th and 12th streets in Bayonne, NJ. It provides its customers with ample parking and easy access to a delightfully decorated and sparkling clean establishment! Fresh sushi is displayed for you in an impressive quantity and quality in an immaculate display case. The fish, seafood and vegetables that comprise these offerings will make your mouth water! You can purchase right from the display case or place your order and sample their tea of the day while you wait. The customer will be pleasantly surprised to see a unique feature as they enter and browse: an open kitchen, where you have a view of the chefs preparing your foods. Brown rice tea was available when this writer came by for a visit. There are three tables available for customers to sit and relax with a view of Broadway.

The business is named for its owner and head chef, Yi (Yi is a nickname). The manager of the store is his efficient and confident wife, Zara Wang, who holds a B.A. degree in International Business. This couple is living the "American Dream" raising two charming daughters and realizing the materialization of their passion to serve. They are devoted to working diligently toward improving their business and providing their customers with the very best in quality food. The story of Yi is quite impressive. Many residents know the head chef from his service of the Sushi Bar at ShopRite in midtown Bayonne. He was originally asked by the owner to open a small sushi bar and agreed to the idea. The sushi bar opened in November 2009. It started with two workers and was so well received that is soon expanded to five workers. Zara talks about her husband with great respect as she tells his story and shares his ideas and goals. Yi worked for ShopRite for many years and before that, he worked for eighteen (18) years in some of the finest restaurants in Las Vegas, Nevada and on the upper east side of Manhattan. He had a dream that one day he would open his own sushi business and make a fine sushi product available and affordable to the average person and working people whose budgets were not as extravagant as wealthy people. He sincerely wants to offer all his customers cuisine what will meet all their needs. Are you a Vegan? Are you Diabetic? Are you dieting? Do you have special needs? Tell Yi Sushi Go and they will accommodate you. Were you under the impression that all sushi is raw fish? Well, ladies and gents, that is a false impression! At Yi Sushi Go you can get smoked salmon and cooked eel and California roll, cooked chicken, cooked salmon and Shrimp Tempura. There are several vegetable rolls! For those with a sweet tooth, there are Mango rolls. Looking for an ample serving size? Look no further! See 8 large slices of roll in lovely packaging for a modest price. Individually boxed rolls are prepared and garnished with ginger and wasabi and the soy sauce hasn't any artificial additives. The rolls are packaged individually and sealed in quality containers to keep them fresh and the flavors of each roll pristine. Take away menus will delight the diet conscious with the calorie count for each 8 piece order. There is a limited time offer of 10% discount on your first online order. Appetizers, soups, special rolls and salads are featured in a generous menu as well as hot dishes from the kitchen. Pictures of party trays are included with prices. There is a $12.00 minimum for deliveries. Delivery orders: Bayonne area. A 24 hour notice is appreciated for preparing a large event party. Lastly, have you ever asked why delivery orders never included some kind of dessert you could order? Your prayers and wishes have been answered at Yi Sushi Go!!! Bottled health drinks, fruit drinks, Fiji water, ginger beverages are available! Mochi sherbets, ice cream and bon-bons, packaged teas, white coffee and organic beverages and other assorted beverages

It delivers a divinely refined texture to your palette and leaves a velvety enriched smile of satisfaction on your entire face!"

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL Wyatt celebrated his new job offer with Sally. Brooke felt guilty for not telling Bill that Ridge had blackmailed the judge. Bill then made admissions of regret to Brooke before sweeping her up in a kiss, which Steffy secretly witnessed. Brooke swore Katie to secrecy about the real reason Judge McMullen ruled in her favor. Steffy went straight to her father and told him about Brooke's betrayal. Ridge then confronted Brooke, and the two accused each other of being disloyal, capped off by Brooke inadvertently admitting that the kiss Steffy witnessed was the second one she shared with Bill. Katie struggled with her guilt as she watched Bill bonding with Will by helping him with his homework. Wait to See: Charlie makes an unexpected proposal to Pam.

HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD — James Bond fans can breathe easy now. First, they had to worry if Daniel Craig would return as 007, and happily, he will. Then "Bond 25" was set to premiere in October 2019. Suddenly, director Danny Boyle (Oscar winner for "Slumdog Millionaire") had creative differences and bowed out. A desperate search for a new director began so the film could keep its opening date. Happily, producers found one in Cary Joji Fukunaga, who will be the first American-born director of a Bond film. Fukunaga directed Netflix's "Beast of No Nation" and the current season of "Maniac," with Emma Stone and Jonah Hill. He also gave us the first season of HBO's "True Detective." Sadly, we'll have to wait until Valentine's Day 2020 to get our 007 fix.

Die-hard "Downton Abbey" fans who've been clamoring for a movie version of their favorite series have been granted their wish. Hugh Bonneville, Michelle Dockery, Joanne Froggatt, Laura Carmichael, Elizabeth McGovern and yes, even Maggie Smith are on board. The film is set for a Sept. 13, 2019, release.

Chris Hemsworth, who as Thor was one of the stars of the $2 billion-grossing "Avengers: Infinity War," is in the untitled "Avengers" film coming May 3. He's currently starring in "Bad Times at the El Royale," with Jeff Bridges, Dakota

Johnson, Jon Hamm and Nick Offerman. Hemsworth also has signed on to be one of "The Men In Black" in the reboot titled "MIB," with Liam Neeson, Rebecca Ferguson and Emma Thompson, arriving June 14.

Also in the works is "Kingsman 3," which so far has Taron Egerton returning, while the rest of the cast hold out for more money, and a sequel to Stephen King's "The Shining," called "Doctor Sleep," starring Bruce Greenwood and Ewan McGregor as a grown-up Danny Torrance.

Another reboot on its way is "Charlie's Angels," with Kristen Stewart, Naomi Scott and Ella Balinska as the Angels. And you'll never believe this, but Captain Picard from "Star Trek: The Next Generation," Sir Patrick Stewart, will play Bosley. Expect it to arrive Sept. 27, 2019.

Allison Janney, who won an Oscar this year for "I, Tonya" and is continuing to star in the CBS comedy series "Mom," is one busy lady. She's just completed the psych-drama "Ma," with Oscar-winner Octavia Spencer (who did a running character on "Mom") and Luke Evans, as well as "Troupe Zero" with Oscar-winner Viola Davis, comic Jim Gaffigan and Mike Epps. She also will take on the role of attorney Susan Estrich in the movie about disgraced Fox TV head Roger Ailes. Janney plays wacky mothers well, but a straight-laced attorney, now that will be real acting!

IN FOCUS

“The Little Drummer Girl” (series premiere — Nov. 19, AMC) From the makers of “The Night Manager” comes this six-episode spy thriller based on John le Carré’s best-seller about a brilliant young actress (Florence Pugh, “Lady Macbeth”) who gets entangled in high-stakes intrigue when she becomes involved with an Israeli intelligence officer (Alexander Skarsgard, “Big Little Lies”) while vacationing in Greece circa the late 1970s. Michael Shannon (“Nocturnal Animals”) and Clare Holman (“Blood Diamond”) are also in the large cast for filmmaker Park Chan-wook (“Stoker”) in his TV debut.

IN FOCUS

“Mars: Season 2” (season premiere — Nov. 12, National Geographic) The six-episode sophomore round of this hybrid drama/documentary series delves into the archetypal friction between science and industry, as the now-colonized IMSF astronauts need funding from a private company that’s interested in harvesting the Red Planet’s mineral resources if they’re to continue their mission. Newcomers Jeff Hephner and Esai Morales join returnees Jihae, Alberto Ammann and Anamaria Marinca in the cast.

IN FOCUS

“Outlander: Season 4” (season premiere — Nov. 4, Starz) The new season of this time-travel soap opera opens in 18th-century North Carolina, where Jamie and Claire (Sam Heughan, Caitriona Balfe) are trying to make a home for themselves and negotiating a tenuous loyalty to the British ruling class, despite her knowledge of the bloody revolution that’s soon to come. Sophie Skelton, Richard Rankin, David Berry and John Bell also star.
