Daredevils chase records by land and air in 'Evel Live 2'

By Jay Bobbin

A year after Travis Pastrana set three motorcycle-jump records on the History special "Evel Live," the cablenet returns with more record-breaking stunts on a live broadcast this week.

In "Evel Live 2," airing Sunday, July 7, Pastrana and Matt Iseman are the hosts as freestyle motocross athletes

Vicki Golden and Axell Hodges seek to put their names in the record books with a trio of stunts they'll be performing at Southern California's San Bernardino International Airport.

First, Golden, a three-time X Games gold medalist, will attempt to plow her motorcycle through 13 flaming wooden boards, breaking the record of 12 set in 2006. Then Hodges, a six-time X Games medalist, will attempt to jump 24 beverage trucks to eclipse the mark set by Evel Knievel in 1971 and equaled by his son Robbie in 2003. And in the finale, Hodges will go after the all-time record for longest-ever motorcycle jump, 379 feet 9 inches, set in 2011.

For Golden, her stunt is the culmination of a long road to recovery that began when she shattered her right heel, ankle and leg in a scary January 2018 crash at a Cleveland freestyle show. Now recovered but admitting she'll never be back to 100 percent, she'll don multiple layers of fire-resistant clothing, climb on her Indian Motorcycle FTR 1200 and attempt to barrel through the flaming boards at what she calls the "sweet spot" speed of 30 miles per hour, her helmet taking much of the impact.

"If I go too much faster, I probably won't be conscious going through these things," she says with a laugh, "so that's the speed that I think we decided that would be safe for my brain. ... We didn't want to go too slow to where the boards aren't even going to break because that's going to suck for me. And then, yeah, to where the boards will break and I'm not just blowing by these things and no one even saw me go."

Also taking the blows and heat will be the FTR 1200, a flat-track bike with a reputation for durability and solid performance, which Golden says was modified for this event.

"We did a couple of changes to it to make sure that it's pretty much built to go through fire," Golden notes. "We changed the front end of it so that way all the debris and whatnot can kind of be pushed away instead of pretty much just being pushed at me. So hopefully the design we use is going to just divert the debris away from me. That's the most important thing."

Vicki Golden is featured in "Evel Live 2," airing Sunday on History.

Bayonne Parking Utility is Renewing Blue and White Zones, Permit Stickers to be Phased Out

Mayor Jimmy Davis announced that the Bayonne Parking Utility's parking sticker permits will be replaced with "virtual" permits registered to license plates for the Blue and White Zones. The transition to enforcement by license plate is gradual. The transition began earlier this year with the downtown Orange and Purple Zones. Enforcement by license plate will spread to the rest of Bayonne as parking zones come up for renewal.

The old permits for the Blue and White Zones will expire on June 30, 2019. There will be a five-week grace period that will end on Friday, August 2, 2019. Enforcement of the new permits will begin on Monday, August 5, 2019.

The Blue Zone was created to protect on-street residential parking for the streets around the 22nd Street Light Rail Station. The Blue Zone includes the side streets from 16th Street through 26th Street.

The White Zone was created to protect on-street residential parking for the streets around Bayonne Medical Center. The White Zone includes the side streets from 27th Street through 30th Street.

For a detailed street listing for each zone, please visit the City website, www.bayonnenj.org.

The new parking enforcement gives residents the convenient option of dealing with the Parking Utility on the Internet. For anyone who is uncomfortable with the Internet, or who has no Internet access, permit holders will still have the option to renew by mail or in person, in Room 13 in the back corridor of City Hall, 630 Avenue C.

Doing parking permit renewals electronically will have certain advantages. People can request permits and manage their vehicles on the Internet, all without having to come in person and wait in line. Electronic methods can also be used more for permit parking enforcement. During 2019 and 2020, parking enforcement officers will replace reading permit stickers with license plate-based enforcement.

When current residential parking permits get ready to expire, requesting new parking permits online is easy. Visit <http://www.bayonnenj.org/> then click Parking Utility. If this is your first time visiting the site, you'll need to create an account. Make sure to remember and write down the user name and password you select. You will need the user name and password to manage your vehicles and renew your permits in the future.

Click the option to apply for a permit, and then just follow the step-by-step instructions. You'll upload all your documents there. The Bayonne Parking Utility will send an email to you when you are approved and your new virtual permit has been activated. If the Parking Utility needs more information from you before it can approve your permit request, you will be contacted by email.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21 There's not much you can do to change a current situation, Taurus. Step away for a bit and let the pieces fall where they may. Then you can develop a strategy.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21 You have a new goal this week, Gemini, but others are not as receptive to your ideas as you hoped they would be. You may need to fine tune things. Be persistent.

CANCER - June 22/July 22 Cancer, resolve to make the most of this week even if it seems difficult to do so. Seek support from friends or family members willing to lend an ear or a helping hand.

you like a moth to a flame, and that has helped you establish lasting friendships and build strong relationships. Cherish your good fortune.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Ben Affleck quit playing Batman after only two films, but producers are confident they've found their new "Caped Crusader" in Robert Pattinson. Pattinson recently filmed director Christopher Nolan's "Tenet," with Michael Caine (who played Alfred in Nolan's trilogy, including "The Dark Knight"). Pattinson also will be seen in five other films — "The Lighthouse," "The King" (for Netflix), "The Devil All the Time," "Waiting for the Barbarians" and "The Stars at Noon" — before we see him as Batman in a trilogy of films, starting June 25, 2021.

 With the success of "Bohemian Rhapsody" (about Queen's Freddie Mercury) and "Rocketman" (about Elton John), MGM plans to make a bio-pic about George Alan O'Dowd, aka Boy George. At age 21, Boy George and Culture Club hit it big in 1982 with "Do You Really Want to Hurt Me," which sold 100 million singles and 20 million albums. By 1986, touring and performing pressures allegedly drove him to severe drug usage and the group disbanded. In 1988, they regrouped to minor success until 1999, when they again broke up. In 2013, Boy George went solo to great success and was again backed by Culture Club. There's a lot of drama in this story, but whether Boy George (now 57) was ever popular enough or can appeal to young people today is the question.

Cloris Leachman

 We told you how Woody Allen is suing Amazon for backing out of distributing his latest film, "A Rainy Day in New York," and three others, so he moved his distribution to France, where it will premiere Sept. 18 and hopefully spread to other cities in Europe, making it irresistible to U.S. distributors. A few years back, Allen complained that it was too expensive to shoot in the U.S. but eventually came back anyway. Now he's moved his operation to Spain and is currently filming his next opus, "Wasp 2019," with Christoph Waltz, Wallace Shawn (of Woody's "Manhattan") and TV's "Young Sheldon") and Gina Gershon. It's a romantic comedy about a married couple at the San Sebastian Film Festival.

 Lin-Manuel Miranda, who took Broadway by storm with "Hamilton" and movie theaters with "Mary Poppins Returns," has come back to his roots to film his 2007 Tony Award-winning musical, "In the Heights." It starts shooting June 26 with Susan Pourfar, Anthony Ramos, Melissa Barrera and Jimmy Smits. Cloris Leachman, 93, who won an Oscar for "The Last Picture Show" (1971), seven Emmys (including for "The Mary Tyler Moore Show") and a Golden Globe (for "Phyllis"), not to mention a dynamic turn on "Dancing With the Stars," has begun shooting her 82nd film, "Jump, Darling," in which she plays the grandmother of a drag queen. No joke needed here!
