Netflix's 'The Innocents' a tale of adolescent love and shape-shifting

By George Dickie

A teen discovers she has an ancient power after she and her boyfriend go on the run from their repressive families in a sci-fi/thriller series that begins streaming this week on Netflix.

In "The Innocents," which begins its eight-episode first season Friday, Aug. 24, Sorcha Groundsell ("Clique," "In Plain Sight") stars as June, a young woman trying to come to terms with herself and deal with a single father who keeps her and her brother locked away. She runs away with her boyfriend Harry (Perelle Ascott, "Doctors," "Wizards vs. Aliens"), himself the product of a cloistered clan, and together they make an extraordinary discovery: that June possesses the ability to shape-shift.

As they struggle to control this strange new power, mysterious Professor Halvorsen (Guy Pearce, "L.A. Confidential") reveals that June is not alone and that there are more shape-shifters like her out there. He promises to cure her and reunite her with the mother who deserted her three years earlier. But their journey is fraught with danger, thus putting June and Harry's love to the test. It also forces them into a choice: to keep their innocent dream alive or accept that their lives have changed and risk everything.

"Obviously it's very traumatic for her," Groundsell says of June's discovery. "She's kind of gotten away from this very repressive life that she's leading and she thinks she's going to have this wonderful future with the boy that she's in love with, and she finds out that this sort of adult world is very different than she was expecting, which I think a lot of us can identify with. But yeah, I think she's thrown into a very scary and dangerous world, and a very dangerous journey, but I think her goal ultimately in the series is to find out who she is and where her place is in the world."

Harry, too, comes from a family with a secret. As his catatonic father's chief care-giver, he's basically a loner, and in June he sees love and an escape from his sad existence.

"That's where June and Harry connect most," Ascott says. "They both give each other a sense of escape from their reality, from their world of being in their restrictive families. And that's why they decide to run away together, because just of the idea of being free and just being together without fearing the consequences, so to speak. But Harry's an intensely loyal boy. He fights for what he believes in and along the journey he makes some choices that ultimately he's got to learn the lesson for. But it's this love that he has for June that is so grounded and I guess it's such a drive for him."

Sorcha Groundsell stars in "The Innocents," premiering Friday on Netflix.

3 BROTHERS FROM ITALY PIZZERIA

240 Broadway, Bayonne, NJ

Call 201-823-1055
or 201-823-1056

Anyone who appreciates the pure tastes of Italy through the convenience of a local pizzeria knows that 3 Brothers from Italy Pizzeria located at 240 Broadway, near 10th Street in Bayonne, offers fast friendly service and an excellent pizzeria/restaurant in which to enjoy authentic Italian cuisine.

Come in, sit down in their dining room, and eat at the tables now available. Imagine starting your meal off with an order of their fresh and tasty garlic bread. Then splitting an antipasto salad to die for with your friends, before sinking your teeth into your favorite entree! Whether you want a cheese pie, a hot or cold hero, a delicious plate of pasta, yummy seafood options, stuffed shells with a variety of mouth watering additions, or other amazing menu items, 3 Brothers Pizzeria is sure to please!

Don't forget to check out the specials they offer! You can find great deals that feed the family without starving your bank account. For instance, take advantage of the coupon on page 11 of this magazine, which allows you two large pies for only $19.00!

If you want to come on in to feast, feel free to do so. 3 Brothers from Italy Pizzeria is open 7 days a week, from 4:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. That's right - they're open late for those nights when you just have to satisfy a craving! Enjoy their free delivery, of course, as well. Call 201-823-1055 or 201-823-1056 and let dinner come to you!
